

Wormholes and random matrices

Abstract

We will discuss a connection between random matrix theory and a simple two-dimensional theory of quantum gravity. Underlying this is a connection between the "loop equations" of random matrix theory and Mirzakhani's recursion relation for volumes of moduli spaces. We will also discuss some generalizations and puzzles.